SCAG HIRES PROJECT MANAGER FOR GREEN REMODEL OF LOS ANGELES HEADQUARTERS

LOS ANGELES – January 06, 2011 – The Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) has hired Sandra K. Bresson to serve as Project Manager for Tenant Improvements to their Los Angeles office. Bresson’s primary responsibilities with SCAG will be to oversee and manage the complete renovation of the LA based headquarters, utilizing Green building practices throughout the process. In doing so, she will facilitate an enhanced office space that reflects the organization’s unique culture and work environment.

When asked about her new position Sandra said, “I am excited for this opportunity. SCAG is committed to creating a work environment that not only magnifies the benefits of Green planning, but also serves as an example for the entire region.”

Sandra has over 21 years experience specializing in Tenant Improvements, Corporate Relocations and Facilities Management. Prior to joining SCAG, Sandra worked as a project manager for Kane Consulting, assisting in acquiring, leasing, and managing Corporate Real Estate locations.

Sandra has also served as Senior Project Manager for Cresa Partners, The Staubach Company and The RAND Corporation, as well as National Project Manager of SunAmerica Inc. While working with RAND, Sandra was awarded their Merit Performance – Gold Level, and during her tenure with The Staubach Company she was awarded Top Achiever. As a project manager she has represented many of Southern California’s notable firms including: AMGEN, DreamWorks Animation, NFL Films, Herbalife, Belkin, Electronic Arts and Lionsgate Entertainment.

Sandra is a member of both the national and local chapters of Project Management Institute (PMI) and holds a BS in Arts Administration from Eastern Michigan University. In addition, she is currently pursuing her California State Real Estate License, as well as a LEED AP credential for Green office building interiors.

Sandra and her husband have three children ages 15, 13 and 9. She is also very active in a multitude of non-profit community organizations and passionately supports her family, public education, and the visual and performing arts.
